Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-10 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

A diamine compound represented by the Formula 1 below is novel.

where

A is a single bond, -0-, -COO-, .CONH-., or -OCO-;

B is a single bond, -O-, -CO0-, -CONH-, or -0CO-;

the substitutes C are independently a single bond, -0-, -CO0-, -CONH-, or -OCO-; and the substitutes D are independently a C1-20 linear, branched or cyclic alkyl group which may be substituted with at least one halogen atom, or a functional group represented by Formula, containing dendritic fragment.

The closest structures found are the following:

Structure 2

where

Y" and Y" are each independently selected from the group consisting of oxy, acyloxy, oxyacyl, and acylamino;

D, D' and D" are each independently is selected from the group consisting of oxy, acyloxy, oxyacyl, and acylamino and e, f and g are each independently 0 or 1; and E, E' and E" are each independently a C1-C20 linear, branched or cyclic alkyl group, optionally substituted with one or more halogen atoms (see US copending application 11/559021, cited in the previous Office Action).

Structure 2 produces from a diamine with a formula, similar to one Structure 1.

However, Structure 1 has a direct link between two benzene rings, whereas Structure 2 has oxy, acyloxy, oxyacyl, and acylamino link between them.

Structure 3

Art Unit: 1711

Structure 3 is a diamine with a formula, similar to one Structure 1.

However, G denoted as a benzene ring only if "m" value is more than 1. Otherwise G is a single bond.

Therefore, Diamine compound claimed in Claim 1 is novel.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see pp. 1-14, filed on 6/05/2007, with respect to Claims 1-10 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The Rejection of Claims 1-10 has been withdrawn.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
